

Donor & Financial Transparency Policy

Carver County Local News is committed to transparency in funding our organization.

Accepting financial support does not mean we endorse donors or their products, services, or opinions.

We accept gifts, grants, and sponsorships from individuals, organizations, and foundations to help with our general operations, coverage of specific topics, and special projects. As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit that operates as a public trust, we do not pay certain taxes. We may receive funds from standard government programs for nonprofits or similar businesses.

Our news judgments are made independently – not based on or influenced by donors or any revenue source. We do not allow supporters to assign, review or edit content.

We make public all revenue sources and donors who give $1,000 or more per year. As a news nonprofit, we avoid accepting charitable donations from anonymous sources, political parties, elected officials, or candidates seeking public office. We will not accept donations from sources deemed by our board of directors to present a conflict of interest with our work or compromise our independence.
